

Christmas at Mall-Mart

The Rivertime Players performed their first Christmas show, Christmas at Mall-Mart, recently at The Hangar Performing Arts Center to adoring crowds at each of their three performances. The original show was written and directed by Parsons' own Shane Bridges, who also had a "small" part on stage as well. The show was filled with holiday song parodies, a rappin' Santa, reindeer, elves and a host of other characters.
