

Rehearsal scenes from Escanaba in da Moonlight

Final performances on Friday and Saturday nights, March 16 and 17

Although no filming was allowed during the play itself, these rehearsal photos allow a glimpse into the world of the Soady's and friends, as they encounter more than they were prepared for in Jeff Daniel's Escanaba in da Moonlight, directed by Shane Bridges for the premier of the new Hangar Center for the Performing Arts.. The story revolves around the Soady's annual trip to their family deer camp and the Rivertime Players brought the play to life on their new, permanent stage. There will be shows on March 16 and 17 at the Center, located just south of 9th Street, on the grounds of the old airport. Don't miss it; it's a hoot!
